ABOUT US

Xsignal Global Limited has been founded in the year 2023 by a team of like minded professionals having expertise and specialization in the domain of internet with the aim to explore and offer the potential benefits of WEB 3.0 to the mankind.

Web3.0 embodies the future of the Internet. Xsignal is architecting a new era of the internet that empowers users, secures data, and catalyzes industry transformation.

Through a seamless fusion of blockchain, smart contracts, and decentralized applications, we are building and providing solutions that transcend the limitations of traditional Web2.0 platforms.

EVOLUTION OF INTERNET

Although the internet was developed much earlier in the 1970s, it became popular in households in the 1990s. The internet has revolutionised the computer, communications and the way we live and work today like never before. One can't imagine a life without internet in today's fast moving digital era. Broadly speaking, the internet era can be classified into three phases

WEB 1.0

Timeframe (1990s to early 2000s) – it was the early period of internet when websites were static and served as source of information.

WEB 2.0

Timeframe (mid 2000s to mid 2010s) – This was “read-write web” and it primarily emphasised user generated content, collaboration and interactivity. Facebook, YouTube, twitter etc came into this period.

WEB 3.0

Timeframe (after mid 2010s) – This is a decentralized version of internet, an ongoing concept, and focuses on AI, IOT, Blockchain, Metaverse etc.

CHALLENGES THE WORLD FACES

The whole world of internet is having a dominance of handful of big tech companies operating in full centralized manner. Privacy breaches, personal data theft, fake digital identities are significant worries in our interconnected community and social world. Unfortunately, there's no transparency and crystal clear answers about who actually owns our data.

Moreover, large number of world's population is deprived of huge earning potential through internet platforms due to lack of awareness, knowledge and associated risk with them.

WHAT WE DO (SOLUTION WE PROVIDE)

Xsignal operates within the decentralized internet landscape, leveraging blockchain and cryptographic technologies to offer services that prioritize user ownership, privacy, and control over data. We also provide decentralized applications (DApps), Blockchain-based platforms, and innovative solutions that aim to disrupt traditional centralized models, fostering a more user-centric and trustless digital ecosystem.

We specialize in assisting tech companies in the transition from Web 2.0 to Web 3.0. We provide expert guidance and services to help organizations adapt to the decentralized internet by blockchain integration, smart contract development, decentralized application (DApp) creation, and consultation on adopting Web 3.0 principles like data ownership, decentralization, and enhanced security. We facilitate smooth and successful transition, enabling tech companies to harness the benefits of Web 3.0 technologies and paradigms.

About Team

THE FOUNDER STORY

Four years ago, destiny united a former Twitter employee from the UK and a CEO from Latvia at the helm of a groundbreaking blockchain technology company who shared a mutual vision. This marked the inception of their venture into the realm of Web3.0. As innovation gained momentum, they were joined by one additional member — an enterprising startup fundraiser from Morocco with extensive global connections. Thus, these people are the architects of Xsignal.

Their mission is to create a decentralized, dynamic ecosystem for everyone in the age of Web3.0.

Guided by their unwavering determination and dedication each founder member contributed their unique brilliance and crafted a new blueprint for empowerment, reshaping the landscape and ushering in an era where possibilities are limitless.
